PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 109th CONGRESS, SECOND SESSION

Vol. 152

WASHINGTON, THURSDAY, JUNE 8, 2006

No. 72

House of Representatives

The House met at 10 a.m.

The Chaplain, the Reverend Daniel P. Coughlin, offered the following prayer: "Love justice, rulers of the earth, set your mind upon the Lord, as is your duty. Seek the Lord with simplicity of heart. He is found by those who trust Him without question, and makes Himself known to those who never doubt Him."

Lord, how boldly You speak, in the opening words of the Book of Wisdom. And You speak directly to those chosen to rule, govern and legislate for Your people.

Everything begins with a love of justice. If each day, each undertaking, each Member, each committee meeting and each debate would be focused on a true pervasive love of justice, neither time nor money would be wasted. Energy would run high and Your people would be animated with a transforming spirit that would shape this Nation and change the world.

Help Congress, Lord, to set all else aside as secondary and first, love justice, now and forever. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The Chair will entertain up to ten 1-minutes on each side.

LONE STAR VOICE: ALEXANDRA GARY

(Mr. POE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. POE. Mr. Speaker, this week, the first National Guard troops hit our Nation's border. They are not carrying the same guns and ammunition as the Mexican military on the other side, but they are driving bulldozers and road equipment. They are starting a project that people all across the country support, fortifying our border, helping to prevent the invasion of the drug smugglers and human traffickers that blatantly infiltrate our Nation.

Americans want to see our Nation strengthened. Mr. Speaker, Alexandra Gary from Riverwood Middle School in Kingwood, Texas, writes to me, "I think we should stop trying to help people from Mexico come into America illegally. I think we should have a stronger border control. It is unfair to let so many people come to America illegally. It is almost like they are stealing. They sneak into our country and escape from paying taxes. They take people's jobs. The few people that we catch and return to Mexico just keep coming back. If we strengthen our borders, then no more can come in. All America needs is ideas and justice."

Mr. Speaker, those simple but strong ideas of justice come from a 12-year-old, someone who has more stake in the future of our nation than anyone on the floor right now. And as a legal citizen, no matter her age, she, unlike illegals, has the right to speak her mind. Alexander understands we are being invaded. Now it is our government's turn to understand this simple but wise truth. And that's just the way it is.

CRITICIZING THE HATE-FILLED WORDS OF ANN COULTER

(Mr. EMANUEL asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. EMANUEL. Mr. Speaker, as United States citizens, we are blessed with many freedoms. Among those is the right to freely speak our minds. While freedom of speech is one of the things that makes our country great, it also means we have to endure the words of a hater like Ann Coulter.

In her new book, the goddess of the right slanders the 9/11 widows, writing, "These broads are millionaires, lionized on TV and in articles about them, reveling in their status as celebrities and stalked by grief-arazies. I have never seen people enjoying their husbands' death so much."

Lest Ms. Coulter forget, more than 3,000 Americans were killed simply because they lived in the United States. That doesn't matter to Ms. Coulter, because she is doing it to enrich herself.

But there is something more sinister in Ms. Coulter's words. The hate she spews is the same kind of hatred we are battling in the war on terror. As a country of thought and reason, I urge all of us to reject it.

I must ask my colleagues on the other side of the aisle, does Ann
